TOUR ITINERARY

Mount Pispisa and the Archaeological Site of Segesta

Today independent departure to join the Meeting Point (Details: to be shared at time of booking)

From here, we walk in the gentle countryside of the Val d'Erice, exploring one of the most fascinating Archaeological Sites in Sicily: Segesta.

The ancient city, founded in the fourth century BC, preserves the Doric Temple and the Theatre which opens on to the surrounding hills.

We'll climb to the summit of Mount Pispisa and enjoy the view of the archaeological area, appreciating its size and excellent preservation.

Independent Picnic lunch during the excursion.

This afternoon END of our services or independent visit to teh Archaeological Site.

IMPORTANT: for people interested to visit the Temple and the Theatre of Segesta we do recommend to hire a Local Guide. The admission fee --around eur 10 per person -- are payable on the spot at the ticket office. The cost to hire the local guide --available in different languages-- is available on request.
