TOUR OVERVIEW

Palermo > Corleone, Platani River Valley > Agrigento

Approximately Travel Time and Unit: Full Day - 110 Miles (170 Kilometers)

Private Vehicle and English Speaking Driver Disposal: full day from h 8:30AM

Today meet & greet our staff at your hotel in Palermo and drive to the interior of Sicily in South direction for an off the beaten track experience. Throughout this suggestive scenic drive you will admire several little Villages and will enjoy local life as real Sicilians do.

After around 1 hour drive we will stop at the Royal Palace in Ficuzza (external view), once used as hunting lodge by Ferdinand IV of Bourbon.

Then to the near town of Corleone, famous all over the world (or perhaps infamous) for its Mafia, being the town in which some well-known clans had their headquarters (the Clan dei Corleonesi). The name of the town was used as the adopted surname of the title character in Francis Ford Coppola's movie, The Godfather. The town is very nice and typical Sicilian style.

Then we will drive through the Platani River Valley admiring rural landscapes surrounded by the Sikan Mounts and crossing several little Villages: Santo Stefano Quisquina, Bivona, Alessandria della Rocca, Cianciana, Raffadali... the main economy of all these towns is based on agricultural products.

In accordance with the Driver you will stop into one of these Villages where you will have the opportunity to have a lunch (not included, to be paid directly on the spot) based on typical products such as cheeses, cold cuts, pasta and vegetables.

Later we will continue to Agrigento, where you will be driven to your hotel.

LUNCH: NOT INCLUDED

In accordance with the Driver you can choose to stop into one of these Villages for a lunch based on typical products such as cheeses, cold cuts, pasta and vegetables. The lunch is not included and has to be paid directly on the spot.
